Sanford Family Genealogy

JACK M. SANFORD, 244 WALNUT STREET, EAST AURORA, NEW YORK 14052

26 Feb. 1968

Boston Public Library

I am sending you a set of 57 pages of additional information and some corrections of information contained in my book, the JOHN SANFORD GENEALOGY which you have in your library.

There is an error in the listing of the family of William Sanford Jr. on page 12 of the book, also in the family of George Sanford on page 22. It has taken me a year to get proof of the true facts and at the same time I was able to obtain more information on others of the early Sanfords in the book.

Would you please mark the book in some way so that those using the book for reference will know of these additional pages. I would also appreciate a brief word from you stating you have received these pages. Would you also make the following corrections;-

Page 19 delete the date of death of Samuel given as 3 Dec. 1738.
Page 76 If the page is not marked with the sticker as enclosed, please have this done.

Thank you for making these corrections.

Sincerely,

Jack M. Sanford

William Sanford's Bible printed 1716 and in 1859 in the possession of Hillary, son of Isaac and Phebe(Akin)Sanford of Dartmouth gives all dates of birth and death. It states-"Mary S. departed this life, the wife of Thomas Sherman the 6th day of Feb., about 8 of ye clock at night, A.D. 1739." This is the basis of the statement in the original copies of the genealogy stating Mary did not m. David Kenyon as claimed by the Kenyon Genealogy.

William[4]was living in Dartmouth as early as 1733. In 1742 a workhouse was established for "the setting to work of all idle persons" and William was place in charge. On 25 Dec. 1751 he gave to the town of Dartmouth 1/4 acre on which the town house was to stand forever.

In 1772 there were five members of the Dartmouth Monthly Meeting owning slaves they were William Sanford, Joseph Russell, Peleg Slocum, John Russell and Isaac Howland. The meeting ordered the slaves to be freed. William Sanford had but one slave, a girl, whom he promptly set free. (History of New Bedford-Ellis). According to two private records, William Sanford removed to New York State and probably went to Northeast Town, Dutchess Co. with two of his sons. Records there have been difficult to obtain.

DAVID[6]SANFORD (William[5], William[4], William[3], Samuel[2], John[1]) b. ca 1770, d. 15 April 1814 Augusta, Maine;age 44 yrs. m. 8 Jan. 1789 Catherine, dau of William[3] (William[2], William[1]) and Elizabeth (Smith)Ricketson, b. 29 June 1770.

David and Catherine were m. by Benjamin Russell, J. P. at Dartmouth, Mass. and lived there until 1802 when they moved to Augusta, Maine. When David died, his estate was declared insolvent, Catherine was appointed administratrix and apparently she had ample means. She owned a farm at Sanford, Maine which she made over to her sons David Jr. and Isaac and she confirmed this in her will dated 1840. Mrs. Sanford's only surviving granddaughter (1909)Mrs. Smith, born Millia Ann Sanford, stated that when they moved to Augusta they brought with them a colored woman named "Black Peg" who was the family nurse to the children and grandchildren. She was regarded with terror by some of the residents of Kennebec, as the town was then called, to whom negroes were almost unknown.

David and Catherine were members of the Quaker Meeting and buried on Quaker Hill, near Augusta, Maine.

(Dutton)Pickard, divorced wife of John Pickard, b. ____, d. 23 March 1869.

William Sanford was a farmer and horse-trader. His farm was in No. Manchester and in the orchard he and his first wife with their children Charles Henry, Lyman Allen and Mary Jane are buried. When his son Lewis moved to California he had the headstones in the little lot laid flat on the ground, so they must now be covered with earth.

William Sanford was executor of his mother's will in 1850. The family Bible containing records was in the posession of Lewis Sanford in 1917.

A deed found at the Bristol Co.Registry,Taunton,Mass. dated 12 Feb.1812 Grantor Abraham Sanford et al; Grantee David Sanford; transfers land to David from his brothers and sisters Stephen,Peleg,Abraham,all of Westport;Thomas of Troy;William Brownell and David Cook,both of Westport. This is signed by Stephen and Betsey Sanford;Thomas and Charity Sanford;Abraham and Priscilla Sanford;William and Anne Brownell,also David and Ruth Cook. The deed covers " all of our share of Real Estate of Philip Sanford, late of Westport."

This gives us the needed proof that Ruth did not marry Thomas Wrightman but married David Cook. From Mrs. John Fiske of Corning N.Y. comes the information their family included (1) Ann b. 1808,d.1877 m.Easton Sisson; (2)Marvin m. Nancy Ann Stewart; (3) Abram d. 1866 m. Jane Crocker; (4) Cordelia b. 14 Oct. 1827 at Hunter's Land,N.Y. near Schoharie,d. 20 Jan.1888,m. Thomas Bull of Coeymans,N.Y. This is confirmed by the 1850 census. This also gives us the wife of Abraham as Priscilla.

David and Ruth Cook lived Berne,Albany Co. New York.

2. (by Ruth Briggs Sanford) Eloise C. b. 24 May 1880 New Bedford; m. 30 March 1904 Harry T. Webb at New Bedford.

The date of birth of William C. N. Sanford is taken from the statement he gave to the Pension Bureau on 26 Aug. 1889 where he states he is 56 years of age. He was enrolled June 1864 on the U. S. Gunboat Aston, Acting Master, Hall, and was honorably Discharged at Brooklyn, N. Y. Navy Yard July 1865. While at Fort Fisher, Va. in the line of duty, he incurred deafness by the corner of the wheel house being knocked off by a shell and it struck him, knocking him unconscious. The boat was on fire but he came to and hailed the nearest boat, about 50 yards away. They returned and took him off. He returned to service on the Savanah to study gunnery and was assigned to the Gunboat Astor. This boat was blown up at Fort Fisher and he was assigned to the Niphon, from there to the Wando and discharged 1865.

On the 23rd of Jan. 1892, his widow, Ruth D. Sanford applied for her widow's pension. She gives the date of Eloise as 1881, not 1880.

B-13 URIAH GIFFORD[8]SANFORD (Philip[7], David[6], Philip[5], Peleg[4], Samuel[3], John[2], John[1]) b. 28 June 1839 Westport, Mass. d. 20 Feb. 1931 Tiverton, R.I. aged 91 yrs.; m. 9 Oct. 1871 at Fall River, Mass., Anna, dau. of Perry and Hannah W.(Waldron)Chase, b. Tiverton or Portsmouth, R.I. 1853, d. Fall River 9 Feb. 1910 aged 56 yrs. I am informed by Alexander Lake, grandson of Uriah Gifford Sanford that Anna and the three children are buried at Oak Grove Cemetery. Alex tells me that Uriah, "lived with us after his wife died. We called him Pop. He was a rugged old man with a full white beard. I remember clearly the blackened clay pipe that was a part of him. He called his mother Grace, 'Baby' and doted on her, my sisters and myself. I recall him best as he tended the large fields of corn and potatoes that were part of the homestead. The low chuckle and the gleam in his eye were benign. I recall vividly his demands at a later date when he was bedridden to be helped to a window to view the crashing activity of a summer storm--all the while rocking silently, humming at times a rousing sea chanty and occasionally puffing on his clay pipe.

The last seven years were spent in bed with his monthly pension tucked in his wallet which was pinned in his pajama pocket. He never hesitated to open it for a worthy cause--such as a new pair of white sailor pants for me or a dress for the girls.

Pop was with Farragut on the U. S. Frigate Potomac. Later he became a whaler and still later a policeman on the Fall River Force. Annie Chase, his wife, was evidently a heroic individual who ran a successful bakery business, sending the only son Alexander to Columbia University and on to medical school. Pop was well loved by his son Alexander who cared for him as a doctor for many years. Pop lived long and hard--but whatever he did or was, I remember him with fond memories."

The Navy papers show that Uriah Gifford Sanford was enrolled at New York City the 26 July 1861 as a Seaman on the Frigate "Potomac." He was also on the North Carolina and on the Savannah prior to discharge. He received his honorable discharge at New York, the 28th of Sept. 1864, at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. Some of the papers give his name as Uriah Gifford Sanford, others as Gifford Sanford.

Family of Stephen[7]A. Sanford (Peleg[6], William[5], Restcome[4], Samuel[3], John[2], John[1] b. England 1605, to Boston, Mass. Nov. 1631 known as President John Sanford of Boston, Mass. and Portsmouth, Rhode Island.) Stephen A. Sanford can be found in the Genealogy of Pres. John Sanford by Jack M. Sanford, 244 Walnut St. East Aurora, New York, published 1966. A detailed story of his ancestors is given in the book. Stephen's father Peleg Sanford was born in Tiverton and other of his children were born in Tiverton, Rhode Island, so it is possible that Stephen was also born there.

We know that Stephen and his wife Lydia came to the area of Marion, Wayne Co. New York, possibly shortly after marriage as their first child Hiram was born there in 1805. At that time the area was a wilderness and Stephen built a log-house with blankets for doors and windows. His 160 acres was all timber and he had to clear land in order to build his home and make a garden. He cleared 60 acres along the trail which is now the public highway from Palmyra to the Ridge Chapel in the Town of Williamson, a distance of about 12 miles. Wolves and panthers would come near the house and howl and scream all night and the only way they could be kept away from the house was to have a log fire burning.

Their cornmeal they had to eat was ground on the top of a stump. In 1848 a stone house was built of lake cobbles drawn from Lake Ontario just a little north of the old log house with the four sons Peleg, Stephen doing the mason work and Merritt and Harvey the carpenter work.

Samuel Sanford b. ___ the second son of Stephen A. and Lydia had a farm, went threshing each year. He owned the first sweep-horse power, called a "Birl". The thresher was only a cylinder fastened on a couple of planks on a wagon and the grain went onto the floor under the wagon and the straw was raked away by hand. The horse power had two large wheels, one the drive wheel and the other the band wheel which went thru a wooden box to keep the horse from stepping on the drive to the cylinder.

Peleg and Stephen were masons, Merritt, Harvey and Joseph were carpenters, Riley was a blacksmith. Peleg also made shoes and boots. Peleg made the trip from Fall River with his wife by boat to Albany, then by the old Erie Canal in a packet boat. He built his home on the farm of Elery Shaw. In 1845 he moved into a large farm house called "the Old Puzzle", a two storied house built to house three families.

I have an interesting letter from Mr. E.A.S. Whitford dated 16 June 1932 at Providence, R.I. to myself in Kenmore, N.Y. He quoted the old story of our John Sanford being the son of Samuel and Eleanor Sanford of Alford, Lincolnshire, England and states he has the line traced back to Normandy in 1065 A. D. He is correct in saying that John had two sons, John Jr. and Samuel, but then goes on to say that All (underlined) Sanfords in this country stem from the son John Jr.

He further quotes the old well known story about millions being in the Bank of England but that everyone who has gone to England to work on this problem meets with death by hands of those unknown. He stated he was 71 years old Sept. 1, 1932. On the side of the letter he states his grandfather was Judge Esbon Sanford and that his father was Wm. Congdon Sanford b. 13 March 1794 and he (meaning himself) was born when his father was 67 years of age. This letter is on the correspondence paper of The Patterson-Kelley Co. Providence, R.I.

I am indebted to Stuart G. Wallace of Rumford, Rhode Island for his kindness in sending me much of the information contained on these pages. His research has been thorough and is substantiated by information from Vital Records, Wills and Deeds to prove each piece of family data.

I also thank Edwin G. Sanford of Belmont, Mass. for his assistance in sending me information on some of the families mentioned.

Many records differ as to exact dates, many also differ in the spelling of names. If any find they have dates that are enough different to warrent their being changed, please let me know. Many Bible Records, Vital Records and Cemetery Records do not agree. As I say in my book the "John Sanford Genealogy", all this information is accurate 'to the best of my ability'.
